THE [NUMB. 859.]

South-Carolina Gazette.

From MONDAY October 22d, to MONDAY October 29th, 1750.

HAMBURGH, July 27.

BY letters lately received here from Peterſburgh, we are credibly informed, that ſeveral regiments, as well horſe as foot, are actually on their march to Finland.

We are ſo much the more ſurprized at theſe motions of the Ruſſian troops, as the matters in debate between the court of Sweden and that of Ruſſia have ſeemed for ſome time to be upon the point of an amicable accommodation.

As theſe letters ſay nothing at all in regard to the uſe which the Ruſſians propoſe to make of thoſe troops; 'tis time alone that muſt diſcover ſuch a myſterious way of proceeding.

Our bankers have received within theſe few days, by the way of Amſterdam, ſeveral very conſiderable ſums of money, which the court of France have remitted to that of Stockholm, in order to pay off ſome arrears of the ſubſidies which they annually pay them.

London, July 31. By Letters of the 16th inſtant, from the Britiſh Herring Fiſhery, by a Greenland ſhip which put into Yarmouth, there is Advice, that our two Buſſes have caught (ſince the two Cargoes ſent to Hamburgh and Bremen) 170 Barrels more of Herrings, which were diſpatched by the Yawger to Hamburgh; and another Yawger was to be ſent for London, with the next fifty Barrels of Herrings; ſo that theſe may be hourly expected in Town. Out of the four French Buſſes, on the Shetland Herring Fiſhery, one of them loſt her Nets, and was gone Home; as ſeveral of the Dutch Buſſes have done, many whereof have not caught twenty Barrels this Seaſon. The Dutch generally agree that our Nets are better than theirs. There are three Eagles on board directed to Mr. Alderman Janſſen.

We hear that a Scheme is laid down for raiſing a large ſum of Money for the fitting out a Number of Buſſes, in order next ſeaſon to ſail for Shetland, &c. to be employ'd in the White Herring Fiſhery, and thoſe concerned are perſuaded that the profits will be ſufficient to pay a very conſiderable Intereſt for their Money.

We hear from Briſtol, that forty or fifty Families of the Plaſh Weavers without Lawford's Gate are come to a Reſolution to go to Nova-Scotia, on Account of their Maſters going to abate their Wages.

Boſton, July 23. We have certain Advice, by the laſt Poſt from Portſmouth in New-Hampſhire, that on or about the 6th Inſtant, one of our Fiſhing Veſſels at the Eaſtward, ſpoke with a very large Brigantine from France, full of Men, Women and Children, bound to Penobſcot to ſettle. They had three Men on board that ſpoke Engliſh, who told our People, that they had been ſeveral Days beating about the Fox-Iſlands, but could not find Penobſcot River, and offer'd any Money to be piloted in; but it being near Night, our People excuſed themſelves till the Morning, when they gave 'em Encouragement to hope for Aſſiſtance, but in the Night ſtood away, and left the Frenchmen to ſhift for themſelves. This Article, we humbly think, merits the Attention of the Public.

Boſton, July 30. By the laſt Veſſels from Halifax we have Advice, that on the 10th inſtant the Town was in great Danger of being deſtroyed by Fire, which began about 11 o'Clock in the Morning, and continued till Night, in which Time a conſiderable number of Houſes were either burnt or pulled down, to prevent the ſpreading of the Flames. It is ſtrongly ſuſpected, that the Bruſh, Leaves of Trees, and other combuſtible Matter, was ſet on Fire by the French employed in the public Works, who lodge in Tents at ſome Diſtance from the Town.

New-York, July 30. On the 13th Inſtant, Capt. Benjamin Stoddert, arrived at Albany from Quebeck, in Canada, with Twenty-four Men, who had been Priſoners among the French, ſome upwards of five Years; two were taken and carried from Carolina, no longer ago than laſt September; three of them were Mohawk Indians, two of Nantucket, the Remainder Engliſh. Never did the moſt miſerable Captives, releaſed from Turkiſh ſlavery, expreſs greater Demonſtrations of Joy on their Return to their Native Country, than thoſe poor Men do, on finding themſelves once more in a land of Liberty. The following Particulars we have been able to collect concerning the preſent Situation of Affairs in Canada, which, we hope may not be altogether unacceptable to our Readers.

Two Days before their Departure from Quebec, four ſhips arrived there from Old France, which brought 200 Recruits, and 600 more were daily expected to compleat the Independant Companies in Canada, to 50 Men each Company. Beſides theſe, there were alſo expected to arrive with them four additional Companies to thoſe already on that Eſtabliſhment. It is very certain, that the French look on the ſettlement of Chebucto as a greater Eye-ſore to them, than if we had kept Poſſeſſion of Cape-Breton: The ſituation and Conveniency of the Harbour, rendering it naturally capable of being of more Importance than Louiſbourgh: Nay, the Pannick is ſo univerſal on this Occaſion, that they all ſeem of Opinion, it will be impoſſible to ſecure their Poſſeſſions in North-America, unleſs they can make themſelves Maſters of Newfoundland and Nova-Scotia. And, indeed, the great Pains they are conſtantly at, in bringing over, and preſerving in their Intereſt the Indian Nations, may give them too good Grounds (and the only ones) of hoping to accompliſh their Acquiſitions; eſpecially whilſt the like, or any Endeavours, are ſo—neglected by us! An Engineer with about 400 men were ſent from Quebeck to Acradia, the week before the Priſoners Departure, in order to build a Fortification there. Since the firſt Landing of Governor Cornwallis at Chebucto, about 30 Men have deſerted from him to Canada; but the wretched Exchange they find they have made, makes their Repentance too ſenſible to be ſuſpected of Inſincerity.

Boſton, Auguſt 6. We hear the French at Louiſbourg have ſeized three of our Northern Veſſels that were trading there, and that the Men are returned to Newport. We ſuppoſe the Marſhours are well ſupply'd with Proviſions, &c. and 'tis hoped our Friends at Halifax may fare the better for this Jobb.

Boſton, Auguſt 13. By a Veſſel from Halifax to Marblehead, we are informed, that all the Tranſports from Ireland, with Laſcelles's Regiment on board, were arrived; and that Governor Cornwallis had taken up a Number of ſmall Veſſels to tranſport the Troops and Stores directly to Minas and Chignecto, where they were to be poſted.—Alſo, that a Schooner was arrived from London, which informed, that Capt. Foſter ſailed four days before her for Halifax, and that ſeveral ſhips with Settlers, Stores and Money on board might be daily expected.

By a Veſſel from the Eaſtward, we have Advice of the Arrival at Penobſcot of the French Brigantine with ſettlers, lately mentioned in this Paper, and that ſhe parted with five other Veſſels to the Eaſtward of Newfoundland, all bound to Penobſcot, with Officers and Soldiers, and Utenſils for building of Fortifications.

And from Portſmouth in New-Hampſhire we are informed, that a Gentleman is lately arrived there from Louiſbourgh, who gives the following Account, viz. that 3 Men of War, 2 of them of 60 and the other of 36 Guns, with 20 Tranſports, beſides a ſhip with 300 Women on board, were arrived there from France; and that 3 Brigantines with Soldiers, and all ſorts of warlike ſtores, and Utenſils for building Forts, ſail'd from Louiſbourgh about the 20th of July paſt, and that tho' our informant could not learn their Deſtination, they were obſerved to ſail to the Weſtward.——Alſo, that another Man of War and 40 Tranſports were ſoon expected from France.

London

Boſton, Auguſt 26. We hear from Halifax, that Capt. Foſter was arrived there from England, and brought with him 150 Recruits for Governor Cornwallis's Regiment.

Boſton, Auguſt 27. By a ſhip in a few days from Halifax, we have advice, that Capt. Cobb, commander of a ſloop in the public ſervice, being at St. John's, in Nova-Scotia, was decoy'd aſhore by the French, under ſome plauſible pretence, but ſoon after he landed, was ſurrounded and made priſoner by a number of Indians, who threatned to kill him.—Soon after which, a French officer went on board his ſloop, and told his Mate, (or Lieutenant) that if he did not immediately deliver up the ſloop to him, the Indians were determined to kill Capt. Cobb; but the Mate had both ſenſe and mettle enough to tell Monſieur, that he would not deliver up the ſloop, and that if Capt. Cobb was not preſently ſent on board, he would certainly hang him (the Frenchman) up as a falſe and treacherous villain. This bold ſpeech had the deſired effect; for Capt. Cobb was ſoon after ſent on board, and the Frenchman put aſhore. Here's a ſpecimen of French faith and friendſhip, and ſhould be a warning to all others, not to truſt themſelves among ſuch perfidious wretches. But, O——————when will ye be wiſe?

Saturday laſt Capt. Saunders arrived at Cape-Anne from George's, which place he left on thurſday, and informs, that a ſquaw came into the fort, and ſolemnly declared, that 60 Indians from Canada were come to Penobſcot, where they were joined by about 150 of our eaſtern tribes, and were determined to attack George's fort within four days from the time of her information. Upon this advice, the inhabitants were retiring to the fort, and a block-houſe at ſome diſtance from it.

Halifax, in Nova-Scotia, Auguſt 31. The 23d arrived the Alderney, Capt. Neal, from England, with about 300 Engliſh and 120 Swiſs, for ſettlers here, and we daily expect the Nancy, a brig, with more ſettlers, chiefly Swiſs. The 19th inſtant a large detachment of ſoldiers march'd from hence for Chignecto, in order to drive the French quite from thence, and to ſecure that place entirely to ourſelves; in which I hope they will be ſucceſsful, as it muſt turn out greatly to our advantage here.—Another detachment is expected to march from hence in a few days, in order to join the former. We are all in a good ſtate of health, and are daily improving and enlarging our new ſettlement as much as poſſible.

Boſton, Sept. 3. Wedneſday laſt his majeſty's ſhip America, of 40 guns, built at Portſmouth in New-Hampſhire, ſail'd for Halifax and Great Britain.

And friday laſt his majeſty's ſhip Succeſs, Lord Colvill, and the Maſſachuſetts ſloop, Capt. Saunders, ſail'd on a cruize to the eaſtward.

Hampton, Sept. 7. This day was interred here the remains of the widow Mary Robey, aged 85 years. She has left deſcended from her body 173 children, grand children and great grand-children, whoſe their reſpective huſbands and wives make near 100 more. About 100 of her poſterity followed her to the grave.

Philadelphia, Sept. 6. Laſt monday came advice, that a Spaniſh man of war of 50 guns, Capt. Mahony, is caſt away about 14 leagues to the ſouthward of our capes. She was bound from the Havanna to Cadiz, and had on board about 50 Engliſh and Dutch, which they were carrying priſoners to Spain. She had been out about 5 weeks, and was laden with mahogany, tobacco, ſnuff, &c. and a large quantity of money. There came out under her convoy, 6 other veſſels richly laden, who parted from them about 3 weeks ago in the latitude of Bermuda, in a violent ſtorm, which laſted 7 days, in which Capt. Mahony loſt his maſts, and received ſo much other damage, that they could ſcarce keep her from ſinking, and on the 25th of laſt month they run her aſhore, where the ſhip bilged, but they got all the money out of her.

Tueſday arrived here Capt. Dingy from Virginia, who informs us, that 3 of the above-mentioned Spaniſh ſhips put in there on the 25th of laſt month in a ſhattered condition, one of which is ſaid to have on board the Viceroy of Mexico and his lady, and that they were much afraid the other 3 were loſt.

Capt. Dingy alſo informs us, that on the 19th of laſt month, they had a violent ſtorm in Virginia, in which a great many veſſels were drove aſhore.

Philadelphia, Sept. 13. Since our laſt Capt. Rivers arrived from North-Carolina, who informs us, that one of the ſpaniſh ſhips (mentioned in our laſt paper) had been aſhore about 6 leagues to the ſouthward of Cape-Hatteras, but was got off again, tho' in a very ſhatter'd condition, and had on board between 2 and 300 cheſts of ſilver: That another was caſt away about 12 leagues more to the ſouth, and had on board a million of dollars, which were ſaved; And that a third was ſuppoſed to be loſt, ſeveral dead bodies having been drove aſhore.

Boſton, Sept. 17. We are informed by a perſon lately come from the French ſettlements on Hiſpaniola, that four thouſand perſons have been landed there from France this ſummer, but in ſo ſickly a condition, that three thouſand of 'em had died ſince their landing.

Since our laſt ſeveral veſſels are come in from Halifax, and by them we learn, that a ſhip from Holland was arrived there with 400 German ſettlers on board; as was likewiſe the America man of war from this place.

Boſton, Sept. 24. By ſeveral fiſhing veſſels come in from the coaſt of Nova-Scotia, we have advice, that a French ſhip of 5 or 600 tons and 70 men, bound to Canada with money and ſtores, particularly ſtores for 2 men of war built at Quebeck, was lately caſt away upon the iſle of Sable, and that the captain had loaded three Engliſh ſchooners with money and the moſt valuable effects he could come at, and agreed with the ſkippers to carry him and his goods to Halifax, refuſing to go to Louiſbourg, or any other French place. 'Tis whiſper'd, that one of the ſchooners miſs'd her port, and is come into a place much to the weſtward of Halifax.

By Capt. Ford in 7 weeks from Liverpoole, we hear, that his Excellency Governor Shirley was gone to France.

Extract of a Letter from Chignecto, dated September 10, 1750.

"The fleet arrived here the 3d inſtant, conſiſting of two regiments, with the independent companies, in all near 700 men, and diſpoſitions made for landing next morning at old Chignecto. The Anſon, in which were Col. Gorham's company, the Warren, with Capt. Bartlo's company, went up two ſmall rivers that ran on each ſide of the Town, to flank the Enemy, ſuppoſed to be about 200, lying under a dyke that ran acroſs the marſh where the troops were to land. They anchored as near as they could to the dyke, and received a very hot ſalute from the Enemy, which was returned by cohorns and ſmall arms, that in an hour and a half obliged moſt of them to retreat. By this time one third of the two regiments had formed upon the point, which Col. Lawrence headed, and marched with bayonets fixed, for the dyke. The enemy, who were then about 40 in number, ſeeing the troops march up with ſuch reſolution, quitted the dyke, and ran in great confuſion, which we purſued apace on the right. The two companies being landed from the gallies, ran on the left, to cut off their retreat, but they ſoon got poſſeſſion of the remains of the ruin'd Town, and rallied their force to ſtand us, tho' they ſoon found we were able to cope with them, both in reſolution and activity, in their own way of fighting, and in an hour and a half drove them all into the woods. We are now encamped in the Town. In this attack Mr. Bruce, the engineer, received a ſhot in his knee, and Capt. Philips, of the Warren, one in his neck: Four private men of the regiments ſlightly wounded, one ſerjeant and five private men kill'd, and ſeven wounded of the two companies. We found an Indian that we kill'd, and by the tracts of blood, it is judged we deſtroyed ſeveral more. Chevalier Le Carne has a number of troops, and it is thought all the inhabitants of this place are in arms with him: He hoiſts his flag in two villages to the Northward of us, called Tantama, diſtance about a league. He ſent a Flag of Truce the day of our landing, acquainting Col. Lawrence that ſome of the ſeamen had fired upon his troops, which, as he did not oppoſe us in our deſcent, deſired he would give order againſt ſuch proceeding for the future; that he had juſt heard that ſome ſavages had fired upon our boats from his ſide, which he would prevent by ſetting proper guards. The Colonel ſent him anſwer, that he was more obliged to him for his complaiſance than conduct. The letter was returned, deſiring it might be wrote in French. Col Lawrence ſent him word, that as a gentleman he would converſe with him in French, and would ſpeak with him if he came over the river; but did not think himſelf ſo well verſed in the French language, as to ſettle affairs of importance in behalf of the King his maſter in it. Monſieur finding that he had one to deal with that was fully aware of the natural policy and deſigns of the Nation, went off. The Indians have ſince fired ſeveral times from that ſide the river, on our parties and veſſels, endeavouring to alarm us in camp, by firing vollies of ſhot at a diſtance by night, which may reach us, but not do any execution. We are now getting our blockhouſes and barracks aſhore, and ſhall ſoon lay out a ſuitable place for fortifying."——
